Or the sellers may elect to bring an action or actions on any intermediate overdue installment or on any payment or payments made by the sellers and repayable by the purchasers, it being stipulated that the covenant to pay intermediate installments or to repay items repayable by the purchasers is independent of the covenant to make a deed and that every action is an action arising on contract for the recovery of money only, as if the promise to pay had been expressed in a different instrument, and that no such action shall constitute an election not to proceed otherwise as to any subsequent defaults, and no waiver by the sellers of any default on the part of the purchasers shall be construed as a waiver of any subsequent default.

Provided, however, that purchasers shall have a period of ninety (90) days from the date of any default to bring payments current or to otherwise cure the default. That purchasers shall pay interest at the rate of ten percent (10%) per annum on any payments that are in default so long as such default continues.

In the event of the taking of any part of the property for public use, or of the destruction of any of the improvements on the property by fire or other casualty, all of the moneys received by the sellers by reason thereof shall be applied as a payment on account of the purchase price of the property, less any such which the sellers may be required to expend in procuring such money, or at the election of the sellers to the rebuilding or restoration of the premises.

ATTORNEYS' FEES:

Upon sellers' election to bring suit to enforce any covenant of this contract, including suit to collect any payment required hereunder, the purchasers agree to pay a reasonable sum as attorneys' fees and all costs and expenses in connection with such suit, which sums shall be included in any judgment or decree entered in such suit.
