“We completely stripped the old building [The New Phoenix], built a brand-new bar on the gaming floor, added over 30 big screen TV’s, added new game types, designed a new menu, remodeled the old bar, installed new carpets, and painted everything,” added Swindell when asked what work was done at The New Phoenix which had been unused since 2017. All the remodeling was done with the intent of making customers feel a premium experience they expected. On March 1, a ribbon cutting ceremony took place at The New Phoenix to congratulate owners George Teeny, Victor Mena, and Bob Clark along with the team of employees who made it possible to expand their gaming options to include Blackjack, Mini Baccarat and Pai Gow, while The Last Frontier is all Poker with games like Texas Hold’em, Omaha poker and poker tournaments offered throughout the week. One of the most important things that team members of these casinos want the citizens to know is that they are part of the La Center community made up of neighbors, friends, and relatives who have raised their kids, volunteered in the community, and have made La Center and the surrounding areas their home. Many of the employees have been with the company for over 20 years because they have built a great second family with many opportunities. “Our mission is to help every employee do the right thing, by our guests, our team, our community and our company,” said Swindell. Since so much of our community is centered around food, the Last Frontier restaurant offers American style breakfast, lunch and dinner and The New Phoenix specializes in Asian Cuisine. You can order at www.lacenterfood.com to have food delivered or for pickup if you don’t want to dine in.
